At the meeting of the board of appeals yes-terday, after our report closed, Mr. Moore moved that the chairman request Mr. Morgan, the assessor of taxes, to detail a clerk from his office to act as such to the board of appeals; which was adopted.

The sale of seats for Proctor's lectures was very brisk at Ballantyne's this morning, and the purchasers were from the intellectual, professional and scientific classes of our people including many prominent in politics. The sale continues all this week. Messrs. W. W. White and O. Bielaski, formerly of the Washington base ball club, have made engagements for the coming season, commencing on the 1st of April, with a new stock organization in Baltimore, under the manage ment of Mr. A. T. Houck, whose field will be the Newington grounds, on Pennsylvania avenue, in that city.

"The Congressional" House, erected during the past season by our enterprising fellow-citizen, George F. Gulick, esq., at the corner of New Jersey avenue and B street southeast, was opened yesterday by the lessee, Mr. Wm. Sanderson, who formerly kept the popular restaurant at the corner of New Jersey avenue and A street, known as Sanderson's. The Congressional is a large four-story and base-ment house, built with all modern improvements, in a commanding site, and will no doubt prove to be one of the most popular hotels in the city. THE THEATERS .- A very large audience assembled at Ford's Opera House last night, and greatly enjoyed the first performance of Birch, wambold and Bachus' San Francisco Minstrels.

Two features of the programme were novel and specially enjoyable. First, the eccentric dancing of Messrs. Johnson and Powers. Those in the audience who dreaded to see the usual stupid clog dance, with song, were agreeably surprised at the agility and humor of those Ma-jiltons in burnt cork. Second, the genuine fun of Bachus, rollicking without coarseness. His imitations of leading actors, including Joe Jefferson as "Rip" and Maggie Mitchell as "Fanchon," were very mirth-provoking, as was his capital imitation of the piece spoken by the tongue-tied infant phenomenon. Birch was very droll. Ricardo was good as usual and ably supported by Wambold. Other features of the performance were about up to the average. No one should fail to see this really excellent com-Dion Boucicault appeared at ithe National

His impersona-tion was a finished and artistic performance, and he was well supported by the excellent company of the National. The play was finely mounted. It will be repeated for the last time this evening.

The new and exciting bill at the Theatre Comique greatly pleased the audience last night, and will be repeated this evening.

IMPORTANT DECISION TO BUILDERS .- Today in the Circuit Court, Judge Cartter, the case of Jakob against Ruppert was given to the jury. This suit is brought to recover damages alleged to have been sustained by property of the plaintiff, caused by the defendant not using (it is charged) due care in making an excava-tion for a cellar. Judge Cartter instructed the jury to the effect that every owner of a lot has a right to make any reasonable use of his ground; to build upon and to make excavations for the purpose of such building. That in making such excavation he is bound to select that plan which will be attended with least danger to the adjoining property and to proceed with care and caution, but that he is not bound to shore up or underpin the adjoining house. If such underpinning is necessary to the protection of the existing house, the owner of the house having notice of the intended excavation and an opportunity afforded him to underpin, is bound to protect his own property, and if he fails to do it and damage ensues in consequence of the excavation and the failure to underpin, he must bear the loss and cannot recover any compen-sation from the party making the excavation. The jury was out when our report closed.

FATHER BEESON WANTS TO FEED THE INDIANS INSTEAD OF FIGHTING THEM .- The audience assembled last night at Lyceum Hall. after hearing Father Beeson on the needs of the Indians, adopted a resolution, that whereas the Indian peace policy adopted by President Grant cannot be properly carried out unless it is sustained by a stronger public sentiment: Therefore-Resolved, That a committee be appointed to confer with the representatives of the different churches and philanthropic bodies as to the practicability of a union meeting in this city, for the purpose of awakening and diffusing a more genuine Christian expression relative to the proper treatment of the Indians. A memorial was adopted addressed to the President asking him to order an immediate cessation of war and to authorize Alfred Love, president of the peace association in Philadelphia, to send a delegation among the Indians and investigate the cause of the difficulties, in the meantime let the saying of the Great Teacher he ob-served: "If thy enemy hunger feed him." Father Beeson and two ladies were appointed as a committee to present the petition to the President.

DISTRICT MILITARY MATTERS-A Brigadier General Appointed.—General orders, No. 11, issued yesterday from the office of the Adjutant General of the District of Columbia militia (Col. A. Webster) announces that pursuant to authority conferred in the act to provide for the organization and discipline of the militia of the District of Columbia, approved August 19, 1871, William G. Moore is appointed brigadier gene-ral, and assigned to the command of the 1st brigade of the National Guards, D. C. M. The ard of examination appointed under the orders of October 18th last is dissolved. The resignation of First Lieutenant M. J. Hurley is accepted. The rank and file of D company, 1st colored battalion of infantry, being less than the minimum required by law, the organization is Capt. B. W. Summy, of the President's

Mounted Guard, while on a visit to Pittsburg, Penn., last week, was the recipient of friendly attentions from the Du Quesne Greys, who, it will be recollected, took part in the second inauguration of President Grant last year. They serenaded Capt. Summy, as an acknowledge ment of the kind treatment they received during their visit to this city. CONFESSION IN THE EPISCOPAL CHURCH-

Rev. Mr. Jackson in Reply to Bishop Pinckney ... Rev. Mr. Jackson, of St. Paul's ritualistic church, preached a sermon last Sunday night on private confession and absolution, which it was understood was intended as a reply to the recent sermon of Bishop Pinckney on the same and kindred subjects. The reverend gentlesoever sins ye remit, they are remitted, and whosoever sins ye retain, they are retained," and heid this to be the authority for private confession and absolution. He assumed that confession and absolution. He assumed that from the Holy Scriptures, from the writings of the early fathers, the English reformers, and from the book of prayer, that the priest has authority to convey God's pardon to the penitent after an hearty confession of his sins, and advised the laity to avail themselves of the blossing whenever they felt the need of it, and to value it as one of the precious privileges which the good providence of God has preserved to His Church.

Exemption of Church Property from Taxation. At a meeting of the Baptist Social Union last night, at the 13th street Baptist church, the question, "Should church property be exempt from taxation?" was discussed. The chair, Mr. J. H. Patrick, announced the subject, and referred to the principles of their denomination, among which was "soul liberty" and the separation of church and state, and closed by separation of church and state, and closed by suggesting the point whether, as the Baptista believe in a total separation of church and state, it was proper to accept a gratuity from the state in the form of the exemption of church property from taxation. Prof. Mason thought the church has no right to subsidies from the state. The acquisition of wealth by the church was contrary to the spirit of Christ. We should "render unto Cæsar that which was Cæsar's, and to God that which was God's." The Baptist church should never say to the outside, "Come join us, and we shall have all church property taxed." We should give up the pennies of Cæsar, and suffer any loss rather than have our hands tied by the patronage of the state. This was the spirit of Roger Williams. Hon. J. M. S. Williams, of Mass., remarked

At the last meeting of the K. F. R. association that Harvard College had more than a million of property not taxed, and the question in Massachusetts was discussed both in a collegiate and religious view. He thought the government should not tax church property which benefitted so many people. It was better to have any religion than none at all, and he favored the exemption of the Mormon church from textices. emption of the Mormon church from taxation. Salt Lake City was the most moral city in the world, which was due to the restraining influence of their religion. In the West, wherever a lot was wanted for a church it was donated. As a Baptist, he had subscribed for a lot for the purpose of erecting a Congregational church. Any of the railroad companies would willingly grant lots for churches or school houses. The church and the school improved the community; and this was the principle that underlaid and justified exemption of church property from taxation. In Iowa the liberality of the state in establishing churches and schools had been chiefly instrumental in promoting the prosperity of the state. Mr. Z. Richards was in favor of the exemption of church property from taxes, because such increased the value of surrounding property. The people thus benefitted should be willing to pay the taxes. There was one denomi-nation—the Catholic—that was largely investing ra property in this city, and, in view of these extensive acquisitions, he thought the exemptions were unequal and unjust. He thought gorgeous churches a curse, and if church property was taxed according to its value the churches would be built in accordance with the spirit of the

Rev. Mr. Nelson said that church property should be taxed like all other property; no man should be taxed to support religion; it should be in all cases supported by voluntary contribu-Dr. Ray, late United States consul at Valparaiso, referred to one of his lectures in Europe on civil and religious liberty, wherein he al-luded to the vast amount of church property exempt from taxation in this country, and then proceeded to assail the Catholic church in Dr. Cuthbert said it was very pleasant to receive a kindness, and he would be very glad if the Beard of Public Works would repair the alleyway near his church. But he claimed that the exemption of church property was not in accordance with Baptist principles. These favors, like the shirt of Nessus, though pleasant, Mr. J. C. Lewis thought we should pay taxes upon upon church property above a certain valuation. If the Board of Public Works chose to improve an alley that benefited church property, he should have no scruple about it. Schools and churches should be taxed in proportion to their value. Mr. King claimed that the exemption law operated unjustly. He would not advocate an unjust principle because it operated against the Catholics. He knew many Catholics and respected them, but he had no sympathy for their religion. They were buying up property largely. The speaker referred to the wealthy congregation of Trinity church, New York, and saw no good reason why they should not be taxed. The strength of a church consisted not in wealth. The Baptists were stronger years ago than they are now. Show and extravagance in building fine churches were doing great harm. The grapher was glad to see here great harm. The speaker was glad to see, however, that though there were gentlemen of wealth in this congregation, they worshipped

JOHNSON TO THE DOUGLASS BROTHERS. In the case of Cook agt. the New National Era and Citizen Publishing Company, (heretofore noticed in The STAR,) Messrs. W. E. Augusta and George D. Johnson have filed their affidavits in behalf of the complainant. They state that at the preliminary interviews between Greener, complainant, and the Douglass brothers there were several parties present that at no interview was any agreement made with an inducement held out to the Douglass brothers that the patronage of the Freedmen's Bank to the amount of $30,000 could be secured or controlled exclusidely by the new company, and the statements in regard to such inducement made by the Douglasses are false. They deny that any more money was promised than was paid, or that the averment of the Douglasses as to $1,500 working capital was ever made. and say it "was never heard of until the publication of their answer in the cause, and is wholly and basely false as touching the interviews, * * and is believed to be a fabrication from beginning to end." They allege that the statements of L. and F. Dougallege that the sta lass that they were allured and enticed into the formation of the corporation, are wholesale per-versions of the truth, and charge that they did all the enticing and ensnaring; that at each interview they pressed the necessity for immediate formation of the corporation, and urged and begged the payment of $300 cash at once to satisfy their landlord and prevent the attachment and sale of their property. They further stated that the Douglasses have been exercising the same control of the affairs of the corporation that they did before over the paper, without regard to authority; that there was no change in the positions of the Douglasses by the formation of the corporation. "Being engaged in the publication of a paper, and about to suspend, as they themselves admit, Johnson, Greener, Tompkins, Augusta, Boston and Cook gave them about $400 in cash; brought them work from the Freedman's bank, amounting to $300; became canvassers for the paper, largely increasing its subscription here and elsewhere, and gave them Greener and Cook, who labored as associate editors for four or five months without any compensation, and who furnished the major portion of the editorial matter." They say further "that they are anxious to be relieved from the tender embrace of said L. H. and F. Douglass, jr., in whose management of said paper the stockholders have now no confidence; that these deponents are unwilling being in leave to the stockholders. are unwilling, being in law responsible for the debts of the corporation, further to impoverish themselves in laboring to continue the managers in employment, and are anxious to have said corporation dissolved and the affairs wound up, and all the other stockholders are anxious to secure the same result. And they firmly believe that if the injunction is dissolved. lieve that if the injunction is dissolved, and the efficers placed in charge, the stockholders will be at the mercy of the said officers, the present indebtedness will be increased, and the stockholders subjected to suits." To-day the case was called in the Equity Court, Judge Wylie, and Mr. Riddle read the answer and argued the motion to dissolve the injunction and to rescind the order appointing a receiver, which was resisted by the complainant (Mr. J. H. Cook). Judge Wylie stated that he would give his decision to-morrow.

IMPROVEMENT OF 4% STREET.—The Board of Public Works have determined to have 4% street concreted from Pennsylvania avenue to the a senal gate. This street was macadamized last seas but the work being very unsatisfactory, both in the board and the property holders, it is necessary that this should be done. Proposals and plaus are now being considered for having the work done early the coming season. The macadam furnishes a good foundation for concrete, and when completed, this will be one of the finest streets in Washington will be one of the finest streets in Washington.

HUNTINGTON, This settlement, about 17 miles out on the Baltimore and Datamac railroad, has recently been incorporated, and on the first Monday in April an election will be held for three commissioners. There are about 25 buildings within the corporate limits now, including a brick hall 21 by 41 feet which is designed to be used also as a church and source house. A building association is being organized, and it is expected that through it many of the lot holders will be enabled to build.

Building Associations.—At the forty-seventh regular meeting of the Franklin Co-operative Building Association last night, $3,000 was advanced at an average premium of At the 53d meeting of the Peoples' Building Association, last night, 12 shares were withdrawn at par and interest to date.

Mr. Theodore Thomas will to-night give his first concert at Lincoln hall, and the pro-gramme is very interesting. The Andante and Finale from Schubert's Symphony in C will be given, and also a septette of Beethoven, besides many other moreaux. Mr. Myron W. Whitney, the great base, will also appear.

Yesterday, Judge Wylie in the Equity Court, made decrees of diverce in the following cases: Mary A. Smith against James W. Smith. In this case the petition filed in September last, states that they were married in June, 1868, by Rev. Father Roccofort, and removed immediately to Philadelphia. She charges that he there commenced a course of ill-treatment towards her, and cites a number of instances of assault, and states she has not lived with respondent since 1869. Mr. A. B. Duvali appeared for plaintiff, and Mr. H. W. Garnett took the testimony. The decree gives plaintiff the custody of her child.

Arabella C. Woodward against George Woodward. The plaintiff last November entered this suit, stating that she was married to respondent in New York in 1852, and lived with him for twelve years thereafter, and had by him for twelve years thereafter, and had by him two children, one of whom died, and she charges that he deserted her in September. 1871, and that in October last he committed adultery. Mr. L.G. Hine appeared for petitioner, and Mr. John Cruikshank took the testimony. Anna Bradbury against Jabez Hill Bradbury.

Anna Bradbury against Jabez Hill Bradbury.

The petition in this case filed in December states that petitioner does not know the whereabouts of the defendant; that they were married in January, 1859, in the city of Hudson, N. Y., and she charges that he became dissolute in his habits, lost his business in consequence of excessive drinking, and in 1861 he became a hankrupt, and in 1864 he deserted her. Mr. W. B. Webb appeared for petitioner and Mr. H. W. B. Webb appeared for petitioner and Mr. H. W. Garnett took the testimony.

FIRE THIS MORNING.—This morning, about 8 o'clock, the brick stable of Mr. Jas. G. Naylor, in the rear of his residence on M street, between 4th and 5th northwest, was discovered between 4th and 5th northwest, was discovered to be on fire, and an alarm was at once turned in from box 27 and sounded. The fire department and police responded promptly, and notwithstanding this stable adjoined a large frame backbuilding and a number of frame sheds and stables were near by, and the wind was very high at the time, yet the firemen succeded in saving the adjoining property, while the police, by their endeavors, prevented the removal of furniture, and thereby saved it from damage. The horses and carriage were saved, but so The horses and carriage were saved, but so rapid was the spread of the fire that several sets of harness, a lot of walnut "trimmings," and a quantity of feed was consumed. The loss will be about $2,500. The stable was insured. It is supposed to have caught from a stove in a portion of the building used as a dwelling.

THE LOVERS OF CLASSICAL MUSIC have cause to thank Mr. Geo. Felix Benkert for the pleasure enjoyed by them last evening at Marini's Hall at his second chamber concert. The entire programme was choice. The Quartuor of Beethoven for violin, viola, cello, and piano, was finely rendered, but most enjoyable was the septuor of Fesca. These chamber concerts are given every two weeks, and offer a great musical treat which should not be over looked. The execution of Mr. Benkert last evening was in every way artistic.

THE LONG BRIDGE AGAIN .- To explain the injury the Long bridge is to the interests of our city it is only necessary to state that yesterday the mail steamer Lady of the Lake was detained at our port all day, and the steamer New York, from Philadelphia, and the Columbia, from Baltimore, both on their way to this city, were detained at Alexandria, all on account of the draw of the Long bridge not being open, which they say was caused by the wind storm which prevailed. This is too thin, as the steamers have passed to-day and the wind is still blowing. Several schooners also arrived at the bridge yesterdey, loaded with grain, and were compelled to return to Alexandria. SALE OF BANK STOCK .- Thos. Dowling sold yesterday to Jos. F. and Chas. Birch, of this city, 14 shares of $100 each of the Farmers' and Mechanics' National Bank, as follows: 5 shares at $1.02%, 5 shares at $1.03%, and 4 at $1.04.

New York, March 10.—The Post's financial article says: All the sales of gold have been at 111% a111%, with gold toans quoted at 4% a3 for carrying. Foreign exchange is heavy with sales of some banker's bills at 4.83% a4.81 and 4.87, the nominal rates still being posted at 4.84% a4.88. Commercial bills are about 4.81 to 482, and the market is less supplied with them than with banker's bills drawn against the negotiation in London of American railroad loans. Money is easy to-day at 3a4 for call loans, with prime mercantile paper at 5a6%. Government bonds in the market are firm but dull. Southern state bonds at the board were strong and active for Tennessees and Missouris. The stock market is lower than yesterday, the inaction of Congress and the Union Pacific election to-morrow at Boston tendering to restrict operations. The Markets.

SYNOPSIS FOR THE PAST TWENTY-FOUR HOURS — Partly cloudy weather has prevailed over the lower lake region and northern portions of the middie and eastern states, with occasional light snow and brisk to high north and west winds. Generally clear weather and brisk to high northwest winds over the middle Atlantic and southern portion of the eastern states. Hising temperature, generally clear weather, and light to fresh winds over the southern states. Partly cloudy weather is now pressiling. weather, and light to tresh winds over the southern states. Partly cloudy weather is now prevailing from the upper lake region to the southwest, and light rain fell last night over Arkansas and the east-ern portion of the Indian territory. The river has risen on Monday at Davenport, St. Louis. Cairo and Cincinnati, but fallen at Pittsburg, Louisville, and Nashville. PROBABILITIES. - For New England partly cloudy weather will prevail, with brisk and occasionally high north to west winds, low temperature and over northern portion occasional light snow. the middle states generally clear weather, rising temperature and northwest to northeast winds ciminishing in force. For the south Atlantic and east gulf states generally clear weather, rising temperature and light to fresh winds shifting to northeast and southeast. For Tenn see and the lower Ohio valley generally cloudy weather, southeast to northeast winds and probably rain to-day. For the lower lake region north to east winds and partly cloudy weather. For the upper lake region, lown and Missouri easterly to northerly winds and partly cloudy weather with probably rain or snow from Missouri to lower Michigan and lake Eric. The Cumberland and Ohio rivers will fall. The national sin of Americans, says Dr.

McCosh, is self adulation. Ohio proposes to provide special juries for emotional murderers and such folks. The city of Indianapolis, like all enter-prising western towns, has a ghost. A South Carolina legislator has intro-duced "A bill to rejuce the bounding dept of the Stait." will be more profusely decorated than ever this season. The Hudson river has yielded only 750,000 tons of ice this year, again:t 1,500,000 last year. The harvest is over. The last bulletin from the female fashionable world in Paris heralds immense tournures, TRUSTRE'S SALE OF VALUABLE UNIM PROVED PROPERTY, ON HIGH STREET, GEORGETOWN, AT AUCTION.

By virtue of a deed of trust, dated November 29th, 1872, and ecorded in Liber 780, folio 304, &c., one of the land records of Washington county, D. C., I will sell, at public auction, on the premises, on WEONESDAY, the 11th day of March, 1874, at 4 o'clock, part of Lot No. 30, in Beatty and Hawkins' addition to Georgetown, fronting fifty feet on the east side of High, above Stoddard street, by a depth of 120 feet, to a 10 footwide alley. and ruffs as high as Queen Elizabeth's. A Michigan young woman poisoned herself because her pretty nose had been broken by a board. The remains of the African explorer, Dr Livingstone, are to be transported from Africa to England at the public expense. Another case of emotional insanity—on the part of the jury: The defaulting collector of Boston county, Missouri, has been pronounced lunatic by the jury. The Anglican bishop of Ottawa, Canada, has formally excommunicated a minister of the church for participating in the communist movement. They have organized the West Newton of the purchaser.

JAMES W. DEEBLE, Trustee. Herse Thief Detecting association in Indiana, with a constitution and by-laws. Horse thieves are not allowed to become members. Three men recently carried from Cheti-camp, Cape Breton, on drift ice, succeeded in reaching land after two and a ha'f days' exand we are still willing, and hope to be as well pre-pared to do so in the future as we ever have in the past. Thankful for part favors, we appeal to our friends and the community to show their apprecia-tion by sending their work to posure to severe weather.

"A SLIGHT COLD," COUGHS.—Few are aware of the importance of checking a cough or "slight cold," which would yield to a mild remedy, but if neglected, often attacks the lungs. "Brown's Bronchial Troches" give sure and almost immediate relief. mediate relief. MIGHTY SHORT.—From now to the 31st of March is a very stort time, and it will be too short for those who fail to secure their tickets for the Grand Gift Concert of the Public Library of Kentucky. It is only once in a century that such cash prizes as $250,000, $100,000, $50,000, etc., are offered at the same time. The people know this, and the demand for tickets is unexampled. A DOWN-TOWN MERCHART recently sued his druggist for attempt to defraud. He was suffering from inflamed kidneys and asked for Dr. Helmbold's Buchu. The druggist gave him another kind, upon which the profit was greater. Instead of relieving the patient, as the genuine preparation had always done, the imitation compound aggravated the disease, and a long and distressing illness followed. The court, after full hearing, gave judgment for the plaintiff with costs. Moral, buy only the genuine. For sale by all druggists.

PURITY, STRENGTE, ECONOMY .- These three requisites are combined in Dooley's well known Yeast Powder. As each ingredient entering into ts composition is free from any deleterious or injurious substances, the purity and full strength of each article is guaranteed in the manufacture; and as one pound of Dook y's Yeast Pow-der will last a third longer in culinary depart-ment than the vast majority of baking powders in market, it proves conclusively that it is the most economical. Convenient to have in the house, and universally produces light and ele-

A CARD TO THE PUBLIC.

The manager is desirous that every ticket-holder in the Fourth Concert which comes off in Public Library Hall on the 31st of March,

shall be perfectly satisfied with the distribution of Gifts which is to take place at that time. The distribution of $1,500,060 is an affair of such importance, that although the interest of the absent ticket holders will be faithfully cared.

for by the management, yet they would be glad for all to see and know each one for himself that everything is done which the most scrapulously exacting could ask, to make the distri-bution absolutely fair and impartial. All arrangements for the drawing on the part of the management are complete, and the ticket holders are invited to send delegates to a meet-ing to be held in the Public Library Building, on the 20th of March, to select a committee to co-operate with the committee appointed by the trustees to count and examine the tags, and see that every ticket is fairly represented in the drawing. The time is short and whatever is to be done must be done promptly. Your co-operation in this matter is earnestly invited.
